GRADED SCHOOL

WE are expecting the largest normal class after Xmas we have ever had. This class will begin Jan. 20th. All those expecting to enter should be here the first day.

We are expecting the best homes in Mt. Vernon to offer to board these students from the county. Unless you do this we are going to have to turn some of the outside patronage away.

Don't fail to attend the Community Singing at the Christian Church Dec. 1st at 7:30 p. m.

The second edition of the Spectator will be ready for circulation by Dec. 1st. Every home in the Mt. Vernon Graded school district should be a regular subscriber for this school paper. The name of every child in the school will appear some time during the year.

The Alumni Banquet will be served sometime during the Christmas Holidays.

The rural teachers are requested to send in a list of their eight grade pupils to Wm Davis to be published in the December number of the Spectator.

The Contestants for the Girls Declamatory Contest are as follows:

The wreck of the Hesperus.

—H. W. Longfellow.

Julia Landrum.

The two Roads - J. P. Richter.

Rosa Gentry.

The only way - Chas. Dickens.

Laura Hiatt.

How They Brought Good News from Ghart - Robert Browning.

Louise Landrum.

Lance of Kanana, Willard French

Hazel Parret.

Virginia of Virginia, Amelia Ruils

Ethel Helton.

The Sign of the Cross.

—Wilson Barnett.

Lorene Mullins.

Contest to be held at Graded School Building Friday Dec. 5th at 7:30 p. m.

Second Term begins Dec. 20th.

We want A SCHOOL to fill the following requirements:

That will be a credit to the community.

That will increase and better our citizenship.

International Stock Show

READY FOR THE "INTERNATIONAL"

A gigantic stage has been effectively set at Chicago for what is popularly known as the annual "Fat Stock Show." It is the Twentieth Anniversary of the International Live Stock Exposition, embracing every known breed of draft horses, beef cattle, hogs, and sheep, together with a display of fat bullocks, swine, lambs and sheep without precedent as to quality.

At this display in the International Amphitheater at the Union Stock Yards, Chicago, the first week of December, a wealth of seed stock rendered priceless by depletion in Europe during the war will be assembled for visualization, presenting an opportunity for the economist, the student and the public, possible nowhere else and at no other time. The event marks the culmination of the two decades of progress during which American breeders have drawn on the best herds and flocks of Europe in carrying out the purpose of the "International" to uplift the live stock industry.

From every section of the United States pedigree live stock, fat bullocks, portly porkers and prime muttons are headed toward Chicago for the annual contest to determine merit in the superlative degree.

AN INTERESTING ITEM

Chicago, Nov. 15.—Chicago will be the battleground this year for the annual struggle between the best corn producers of the entire country to determine who will be crowned corn King of the United States. The struggle will be staged at the International Hay and Grain Show, which will be held in connection with the International Live Stock Exposition at the Union Stock Yards, November 29th to December 6th. This is the first grain show since 1914 on account of the war.

Already the entry list is large, with the very best corn growers in the country competing for the $10,000 in prizes offered by the Chicago Board of Trade.

In addition to the corn which will be on display from the various states, fourteen agricultural colleges will have exhibits of an educational nature.

One of the special features will be a miniature farm. This will be a complete layout of a farm, showing the number of cattle, hogs, sheep, horses, chickens, etc., that an average corn belt farm can profitably carry.

It also will show a good crop rotation, with the farm all laid out so as to save labor and increase the efficiency of the operator.

Judging from the many entries of corn, oats, wheat and all kinds of hay now being received, the show this year will far surpass that of previous years. The corn and small grain growers not only are interested, but the hay producers, who are given an opportunity to show what they can do, will be at the show in force.

That will make this a real educational center.

That will be a lasting evidence of our progressiveness.

That will expand our business and bring money to our midst.

That will give our children the advantage of other like cities

That will be—

A REAL SCHOOL

On an ideal location.

With plenty of elbow room inside.

With an honest-to-goodness playground outside.

With adequate Light, Heat and Ventilation.

With a laboratory and other necessary equipment.

THE INTERNATIONAL FAIR

There will be little ears of corn, medium sized ears of corn and big ears of corn exhibited at the International Grain and Hay Show to be held November 29, December 6 in connection with the International Live Stock Exposition, Chicago.

A giant ear of corn has been entered by one of the corn belt states and has been termed "The International Ear." This ear of corn is 37 inches long, 30 inches circumference, has 82 rows with 225 kernels to the row, making a total of 18,450 kernels on the ear. This will be, no doubt, the largest ear of corn ever exhibited and one that is so unusual that it will attract the attention of every visitor.

The exhibitors are insisting that the management shall place this ear in a glass case for the reason that many might insist on securing grains that they may attempt to reproduce this large ear.

Throughout the entire country farmers are examining their corn and their grains, selecting the best that can be found and are grooming and preparing them for the great International show. Everyone interested in seeing these products should arrange to attend the Exposition November 29-December 6

GOVERNMENT AND COLLEGE EXHIBITS

Again a leading feature of the International Live Stock Exposition, during the first week in December, will be an exhibit to portray the results of feeding experiments as conducted by several agricultural experiment stations during recent years. This exposition has been of great educational value to the stockmen of America concerning profitable types and breeds of live stock. This year exhibits will be staged that ascertain to prove of great educational value along lines of profitable feeding and management. The exact amount of feed required to make one pound of beef, pork or mutton in different experiments will be shown, and a concise statement of the results will be presented in the form of cards or charts.

At this particular time when feed is high in price, it is very necessary in profitable feeding to study carefully food combinations that will give the greatest gains at the lowest cost and with the highest profits. This exhibit is certain to prove both interesting and instructive to the largest number of stockmen who will be in attendance. Model live stock farms will be shown in miniature and model barns and feed racks of various descriptions will be exhibited.

The Department of Agriculture is preparing very attractive exhibits pertaining to feeding and management of live stock, one of the features of which will be "A Flock of Sheep on Every Farm."

That will make this a real educational center.

That will be a lasting evidence of our progressiveness.

That will expand our business and bring money to our midst.

That will give our children the advantage of other like cities

That will be—

AMERICANS GIVE CHURCH TO VILLAGE OF CANTIGNY

Cantigny, France, Nov. 4—This village where the American troops first "went over the top" in earnest after the Germans the first of the many towns and villages the American army liberated for France, will soon have a new church on the front of which will appear the inscription "Gift of the American people."

Until it is possible to restore the old stone edifice, the church will be located in one of the American Red Cross huts. The first ceremony to be celebrated there will be the marriage of the daughter of the mayor of Cantigny.

GET SEED POTATOES NOW.

Throughout Maine and other northern potato producing States harvest is now on full blast. As the northern potato crop is below normal, both in acreage and yield, specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture recommend that the southern planters stock up immediately on seed potatoes for next spring's plantings. Such activity on the part of the southern growers not only will assure them of the necessary seed but also will enable them to secure high-producing, disease free seed selected in the field at harvest time.

FRENCH LIKE AMERICAN CANNING.

France—the land where every one is supposed to be a good cook—likes American methods of home canning.

Four home-demonstration workers were lent to France by the United States Department of Agriculture in June. They were to give demonstrations in the methods of home canning which have proved popular in the United States during the past decade. Their work in France has been attended with marked success. The first series of demonstrations were concluded early in August and the second was started.

In the first series the work, as planned by the minister of Agriculture and carried out by the Americans, was the teaching of Agricultural leaders, who in turn will teach the French people. Among those who attended this first series were four directors of agricultural colleges, two chiefs, one inspector general from the ministry of agriculture, 21 professors from different agricultural colleges, four wounded French officers, the wives of some of the professors, one directrice, and two teachers of higher schools—alone 100 in all.

ONLY A COLD.

Are you ill? is often answered. "Oh! it's only a cold," as if a cold was a matter of little consequence, but people are beginning to learn that a common cold is a matter not to be trifled with, that some of the most serious diseases start with a cold. As soon as the first indication of a cold appears take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Remember that the sooner you get rid of your cold the less the danger, and this remedy will help you to throw it

MUST A CHILD BE PALE?

Pallor, "Tired-outness" and Poor Appetite Almost Always Remedied by Pepto-Mangan

It Builds Up the Blood and Thus Improves the Appetite and Strengthens the Body

There is but one legitimate excuse for a pale, run-down, listless child, and that is some serious disease of one or more of the vital organs, which, of course, needs the prompt attention of a competent physician. Unless such condition exists, the weak, white youngster who takes no pleasure in romping or playing can be very materially helped by a course of the truly dependable blood enricher and general tonic, Gude's P. pto. Man

gan. This standard remedy for Anemia (Bloodlessness) has been continuously prescribed by physicians all over the world for nearly thirty years, to restore the weakened, watery blood to its normal condition, and thus improve the appetite, add color to pale lips and cheeks, and impart strength to the whole body. Gude's P. pto. Man can be had in both liquid and tablet form (no difference in its effect), the liquid of course, being preferable for young children. When buying

"Gude's" is on the package. Without "Gude's" it is not Pepto-Mangan.

CONSTIPATION.

Most laxatives and cat'artics afford only temporary relief and should be used only for that purpose. When you want permanent relief take Chamberlain's Tablets and be careful to observe the directions with each package. These tablets not only move the bowels, but improve the appetite and strengthen the digestion.

CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Royse City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Kilman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl... my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me... but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable... I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot..."

I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."

You suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial.

J. 71

SMILES:

A company of people were waiting in a railroad station and fell to relating at how early an age each had chosen his vacation. A farmer had been stimulated at twelve by a plot of ground given to him to cultivate. A preacher said that at the age of seven, in church one day, he had resolved to enter the ministry. Thus several men spoke; but a sign painter present, anticipated them all by remarking: "I started in my business before any of you. Why, before I could talk, I made signs."

The stout Teuton woman with the little boy, handed the conductor a $2 bill.

"Smallest you have?" asked the conductor, and he shifted the silver and nickels in his pocket. She thought he meant the little boy.

"Nein!" she responded. "I have one home only three months old already."—Chicago News.

Professor Fudge—What do you mean, Mr. Jones, by speaking of Dick Wagner, Ludie Beethoven, Charlie Goudou and Fred Han-del?

Jones—Well, you told me to get familiar with the great com- posers—Musical America.
